

Celebrating Our 33rd Anniversary!

Women In New Roles

www.tccd.edu/win-r

A unique college credit program designed to assist in the transition of returning to school

- ◆ College Credit Classes (blended/integrated curriculum)
PSYC 2315 (Psychology of Adjustment) and PSYC 2302 Applied Psychology (Career/Work focus) Classes meet Tuesday/Thursday day and night; Monday/Wednesday day and night.
- ◆ Community Seminars, Health Forum Series, Leadership Forum, Women's Symposium, Community Projects, Art Show, Student Organizations, Young Women's Leadership Track
- ◆ Scholarships Available through TCC Foundation office - www.tccd.edu
- ◆ Women In New Roles Network provides support before, during, and after enrollment in college.
- ◆ Visit Our Newsletter Site: www.win-r.org
If you need help seeking direction for your life or confirmation for a career choice, are a returning student who is nervous and/or scared, or have been in college for one or two semesters and are still unsure of a major, Women In New Roles may be for you.

For more information, contact:

Triesha Light, Women In New Roles, South Campus
817-515-4740, triesha.light@tccd.edu

Suzanne Carranza, Women In New Roles, South Campus
817-515-4738, suzanne.carranza@tccd.edu

Ann Nguyen, Women In New Roles, Southeast Campus
817-515-3590, ann.nguyen@tccd.edu

Dr. Marisa Garcia-Luna, Women In New Roles, Southeast Campus
817-515-3107, marisa.garcia-luna@tccd.edu

Dr. Paula Vastine, Women In New Roles, Northeast Campus
817-515-6456, paula.vastine@tccd.edu

Anita Peters, Women In New Roles, Northeast Campus
817-515-6985, anita.peters@tccd.edu

Dr. Lori Fowler, Women In New Roles, Trinity River Campus
817-515-1184, lori.fowler@tccd.edu

